

2020 Spending Review

- Chancellor pledges £13.8bn extra spending next year
- No government department will be cut next year: Javid
- Shadow Chancellor McDonnell: speech was "compendium of meaningless platitudes"
- £432m funding for DEFRA for "world-leading environmental standards": Javid
- Javid claims fastest increase in day-to-day spending in 15 years
- Chancellor pledges £1.5bn for social care
- McDonnell: statement was "grubby electioneering"
- Shadow Chancellor: Chancellor "too weak" to do full three-year review
- Javid promises to increase the Home Office budget by 6.3%
- McDonnell: austerity has put economy in "bad shape"
- Chancellor promises first 2,000 extra police officers by March
- Javid says £3.6bn set aside for new towns fund
- Shadow Chancellor: not a "real end to austerity"
- McDonnell: £1.8bn education pledge compares with IFS estimate £3.8bn needed to reverse cuts
- McDonnell: Education budget slashed £10bn in real terms since 2010
- Javid: school funding will increase by £7.1bn by 2022-23
- McDonnell: 160% increase in people sleeping rough and £100m spending gap
- McDonnell: Government plotting "devastating" no-deal Brexit
- Javid: 1,000 new diplomats to be added
- £2.2bn extra funding for the Ministry of Defence, says Javid
- £200m transform local bus transport: Javid
- £54m to tackle homelessness : Javid
- NHS to receive £6.2bn extra says Chancellor
- Javid: UK "turning the page" on austerity
- Infrastructure spending "not good enough" says Chancellor